24 Civ. 5924 (JPC)

ORDER

JOHN P. CRONAN, United States District Judge:

Under the terms of the Court’s August 12, 2024, order at Docket Number 12, the parties were required to submit a joint letter to the Court by August 28, 2024, addressing the following in separate paragraphs:

- (1) A brief statement of the nature of the action and the principal defenses thereto;
- (2) A brief explanation of why jurisdiction<sup>1</sup> and venue lie in this Court;
- (3) A brief description of all outstanding motions and/or all outstanding requests to file motions;
- (4) A brief description of any discovery that has already taken place, and that which will be necessary for the parties to engage in meaningful settlement negotiations;
- (5) A list of all prior settlement discussions, including the date, the parties involved, and the approximate duration of such discussions, if any;
- (6) The estimated length of trial; and
- (7) Any other information that the parties believe may assist this Court in resolving the action.

Dkt. 12 at 1-2. By that same date, the parties were also required to submit to the Court a proposed case management plan and scheduling order, a template of which is available at <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-john-p-cronan>. Id. at 2. That deadline has passed, and the docket does not reflect the entry of such a joint letter. The Court sua sponte extends the deadline for the joint letter to August 30, 2024. If the parties have not filed a joint letter by that date, the Court will order the parties to appear for a status conference on this matter.

<sup>1</sup> As Plaintiff invokes this Court’s diversity jurisdiction, Dkt. 1 ¶ 7, the parties shall specifically address whether Plaintiff has adequately alleged the parties’ citizenship. See John Birch Soc’y v. Nat’l Broad. Co., 377 F.2d 194, 199 (2d Cir. 1967) (“[I]t has long been held that a statement of residence, unlike domicile, tells the court only where the parties are living and not of which state they are citizen.”).

SO ORDERED.
